

Q. How many visiting cards bearing Mr. Hall's name were found?

A. One.

Q. How many visiting cards came into your possession?

A. One. Found among clothing in large pasteboard box. Turned over to M. on November 1, 1922, by David.

Q. What did you do with the visiting card which came into your possession?

A. Fitzpatrick, fingerprint expert, told M. that he had examined the card and found no fingerprints. Left with clothing and all turned over to David and two days later all turned over to Totten. M. has not seen card since.

Q. Did it bear a fingerprint and if so, was anything done to develop the fingerprint?

A. Fitzpatrick said "No" and Schwartz look at it casually and said he saw no evidences of prints.

Q. Were any identifying initials placed upon the card by you and if so, what were they?

A. J.F.M. placed on back of card in ink by M.

Q. Where was the card when you last saw it?

A. With clothing in Totten's possession, impounded by David. That was card found at foot of Dr. Hall.

Mason also said

There was no blood, only a few fly specks on the card.

Fitzpatrick put his initials on it too.

Totten was present when David gave Mason the card, clothes, etc. out of the cardboard box.

Totten and David were present when Mason initialed the card.
